In the Shelter of His Wing...

~ Sandy Blaser, Healing Rain to the Nations

Being raised on a farm was such a joy! But there were also those lean years when crops failed. I listened to Momma and Daddy praying as they leaned heavily upon the Lord.

Days were filled with all kinds of lessons of life. My Brother Bill and I were so excited to find a nest of baby chicks, baby kitten's or even a nest of puppies in the hay. Even today I find much comfort in watching a Momma Chicken gathering her Baby Chicks under her wings! When I reminisce my life on the farm, It reminds me of a beautiful scriptures...

"He covers me with his feathers, and under his wings I will find refuge; his faithfulness is my shield and rampart. (Psalm 91:2-4) For the Lord is a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat. (Isaiah 25:4) Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will be joyful in God my Savior.

I'm ever so grateful for the lessons I learned from watching my Momma & Daddy as they depended upon the Lord....When life gives me a hard blow, I can always run to Jesus. For there, In the shelter of His wing...I find so much comfort, protection, peace and rest for my weary soul.
